ARGREGOR'S FAST RACE.

Almost ideal racing weather prevailed at Worth yesterday and the popular Chicago Ridge course booked its banner day of attendance. The track was almost at its best and a better day's sport has not been seen hereabout in sometime. Betting was unusually brisk, the bookies getting the best patronage of the meeting thus far. As usual the half-holiday crowd was on hand but in larger numbers than heretofore.

The feature event was the Blue Island Handicap for three-year-olds and upward at one and one-quarter miles, with $1,000 added. Much interest was taken from the contest by the withdrawing of Barrack, St. Marcos and Federal at the last moment. Even at that a field of eight faced the barrier, the adjustment of the weights giving them all a supposed chance to take down the plum. Argregor was always a prime favorite in the betting, being held at 9 to 5, while the Hildreth entry, Searcher and Rolling Boer, was made the second choice. Argregor justified the belief that Denman Thompson beat him by a fluke the day before by putting up a clever performance and winning in impressive style. Haviland, closely attended first by Searcher and then by Kentucky Babe, set a hot pace for a mile and an eighth, where Winkfield, who had held Argregor always within easy distance of the leaders, called on him and he responded with a rush, beating Haviland to the line rather handily by a half length, while the latter finished a length before Kentucky Babe. Haviland's race was a good one and he held on longer than usual. Kentucky Babe ran the best race of her career. Strangest finished fourth and would have been much closer up at the finish if he had not been pocketed against the inside rail in the last eighth. Rolling Boer and Searcher had enough when a furlong out. Denman Thompson was always outrun and failed in the last quarter to show his usual powerful finishing rush.

The day's opener went to Tom Ryan's The Pride after a vigorous ride through the final furlong. It was a seven furlongs dash, for which Federal was held as equal choice with him, both of their odds hovering around the even money mark. At flag fall The Pride shot to the front at once and held a commanding lead to the last eighth post, where Federal closed up on him. The latter, although under strong pressure in the closing strides, could not quite get up, The Pride winning by a long neck with Tom Kingsley third, six lengths back of Federal. Both Tom Kingsley and Lady Elite showed well for six furlongs, but were very leg weary by the time the line had been reached.

Little Elkin proved too much the best in the second race, a run over a mile and a half route. Linden Ella started out to make the running and held a good lead for the first seven furlongs where she had enough and fell back beaten. Little Elkin then took up the pacemaking and remained in front thereafter to the end, winning easily by two lengths from El Caney, he beating Sarilla the same distance for second place. Coburn rode a clever race on El Caney, but the winner was too much for his mount. Sarilla, the favorite, ran below expectations, tiring badly when the pinch came and had all she could do to outlive Valdez for third place. The latter was the medium of a heavy plunge, but tired and sprawled badly in the last eighth.

St. Cuthbert was thought to have a mortgage on the third race, a five furlongs dash, being always held at even money or less in the ring. He got off none too well but succeeded in getting into the lead by the time the stretch turn had been reached but along about the last eighth he was joined by Alzura. The latter proved too much for him in the last fifty yards, gradually drawing away and winning by a length. Small Jack finished stoutly next to the inside rail in the last eighth and was lapped on St. Cuthbert at the finish. Emma R. as usual showed early speed but faded away rapidly when the rub came. St. Cuthbert had not raced in some time and the race should do him good. Georgia as customary ran a dull race even with Coburn in the saddle.

Tammany Chief, after many attempts here lately, finally put one over the plate, winning the fourth race, a dash once around the circle, in a rather easy fashion by a length from Evelyn Byrd, which finished three lengths before Chorus Boy for second money. Evelyn Byrd led up to the last sixteenth and appeared all over the winner, but quit when challenged by the winner in the last fifty yards. Eva Rice showed a little early speed, but tired and fell back when the head of the stretch had been reached.

The last race of the day proved an easy thing for Mabel Winn, which made her field look cheap. It was a five and a half furlongs scramble for two-year-olds, and it was supposed to be a sixteenth further than she likes to go; but she gave the lie to such a belief by winning in a canter by five lengths from Queen W., she beating Santa Teresa three lengths for second place. Zibia showed quite a turn of speed for a half mile, but grew leg weary rapidly in the last quarter. Santa Teresa finished fast, nipping Jane Oaker on the post for third money.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

It is reported in New York that Danny Maher, the only American boy in England who has invariably received kind words from the turf critics, will be paid $25,000 as a retainer by the Duke of Devonshire. The announcement made Friday to the effect that Maher had received this engagement caused considerable pleasure to the metropolitan racing men. Maher was very popular in New York. He went to England to ride for the late Pierre Lorillard. By being retained by the Duke of Devonshire, Maher becomes, so far as the social ladder of the race world is concerned, the premier jockey of England, and also the royal jockey, for King Edward's racing string is racing under Devonshire's name. When Queen Victoria died the King had to transfer the horses he ran as Prince of Wales. They include Diamond Jubilee, winner of last year's Derby.

Maher is to get, in addition to his retainer, which is the biggest ever paid to an American, a princely salary. The Duke, and of course, the King, will have his services exclusively. The only jockey who ever equaled the figures to be paid Maher was Fred Archer, the greatest jockey England ever turned out.

Said the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune of yesterday: "It is said that the Campbell County Grand Jury, now in session, will make a partial report today, and in which it returns an indictment against F. F. Fowler, manager of the Newport race track. The charge is that of conducting a betting ring at the Newport track during the race meeting held last spring and summer. The authorities secured sufficient evidence to prove to the jury that the laws had been violated. It is also rumored that a number of bookmakers that were at the track will meet a similar fate."

"The indictment does not come as a surprise to Manager Fowler, and he has stated that he feels thoroughly safe behind the charter of the Queen City Jockey Club. He claims that the charter, or rather the articles of incorporation, of his track places it in the same position as all

Winner—B. g. by Rayon d'Or—Fen Follet. Went to post at 2:00. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Fulminate waited under a stiff pull to the last half and then went to the front without much effort. Curfew Bell ran a remarkably good race and finished strongly. King T. went well throughout. Mystic Shriner was greatly handicapped by the slow early pace and was outprinted at the end. Scratched—(28777)Zinziber, 162; 28777 Cock Robin, 150; 28756 Miss Mitchell, 140. Fulminate, show, out. Curfew Bell, show, 4 to 1. King T., show, evens. Mystic Shriner, show, 1 to 3.

Winner—B. f. by Kingston—Rhodesia. Went to post at 2:35. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Delagoa spreadeagled her field and was a speed marvel today and must be away above the average. Destitute ran well and favors the Eclipse Course evidently. Extinguisher ran a speedy and game race. Grand Opera can do better and ran poorly for him. Bijou and Arrah Gowan both want mud and a longer route. John Barleycorn showed speed. Somersault and Ice Water got off badly.

Scratched—Tim D. Jr., 109; 28312 Champagne, 106; 28793 Octoroon, 106; 28347 Gaygirl, 106; 28347 Virginia Grace, 105.

Time, 1:10.

Winner—Ch. f. by Laureate or Clifford—One I Love. Went to post at 3:00. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out; second handily. Rockwater was best and showed brilliant speed and gameness throughout. Roxane ran well and finished strongly, but the early speed is dulled from her recent long races. Belle of Lexington was prominent all the way and hung on well at the end. Lady Uncas ran in her best form. Setauket finished with a tremendous rush. Musette quit badly. Highlander requires a more vigorous rider.

Scratched—28727 Bannockburn, 116; 27716 May W., 110; 28203 Bellario, 110; 28346 Cervera, 108; 28360 Rappenecker, 90; 28374 Rightaway, 90; 28778 Eddie Busch, 87; 28593 Little Gem, 85.

Winner—B. f. by Inspector B.—Early Morn. Went to post at 3:35. At post 2 minutes. Start straggling. Won in a canter; second the same. Endurance by Right and Yankee ran throughout under a choking pull. The latter acted like a fast horse today and is a giant in appearance. Caughnawaga is a stayer but was lucky to beat Luck and Charity for third money. The latter tried to race with the winner and was poorly handled and shut off in the stretch. He is probably a good colt and should win soon.

Overweights—Luck and Charity, 1 pound. Caughnawaga, show, 2 to 5.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

R. J. Hutchinson is the latest horse owner who will take his stable to New Orleans in preference to San Francisco. Secretary Sheridan Clarke, before he left New York for the Crescent City on Thursday, secured the assurances of many prominent eastern turfmen.

Colonel J. A. Strathy died recently at his home in Montreal. He was until his health failed interested in steeplechasers, and owned some good jumpers. He imported George Frederick, the only English Derby winner ever brought to Canada.

For the Paris Grand Prix of 1904, worth $40,000, Mr. W. K. Vanderbilt has entered thirteen yearlings, most of which are out of the batch of mares sold to him by the late Pierre Lorillard in 1895. Mr. August Belmont has made three entries in the same race.

The Jockey Wonderly, who has been riding in such good form both at Gravesend and Morris Park meetings this fall, was born in London, Ont., and first brought out by "Doc" Graydon, in whose colors he won a number of good races.

Mr. Seagram will winter quite a few of his youngsters in the neighborhood of New York, under the care of trainer McCable who used to work for the Dwyer Bros.

Tom McDowell has turned out his crack two-year-old Alan-a-Dale until the spring. The son of Halma, bar accident, should make a more than useful three-year-old.

Winner—B. g. by Dundee—Beeswing.
Went to post at 2:10. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. The Pride ran one of his good races, was luxuriant of speed and stood a vigorous ride all through the last eighth. Federal finished stoutly but could not quite get up. He was under strong pressure while coming down the last quarter. Tom Kingsley showed much speed for five furlongs and then began to tire. Lady Elite ran in much improved form and clearly showed she does not like soft or muddy going, as she was hopelessly beaten off in her last effort. Einus ran well for a half mile.

Scratched—28786 Goal Runner, 99.

Overweights—Lady Elite, 3 pounds; The Pride, 1; Tom Kingsley, 1.

The Pride, show, out. Federal, show, out. Tom Kingsley, show, 3 to 5.

28871 SECOND RACE—1 1/2 Miles. Purse $500; $75 to second; $25 to third. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—Ch. g. by Lampighter—Emma Pickwick.

Went to post at 2:40. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second the same. Little Elkin assumed command after the first quarter had been run and was never afterward in serious trouble. He gradually increased his lead while coming down the last eighth. El Caney, cleverly handled with determination, but had no chance to beat the winner. Sarilla moved up fast when turning for home, but quit badly when the pinch came. Valdez sprawled miserably in the last eighth and was a very tired horse at the finish. Linda Ella was right there for a mile and a quarter, but tired and fell away in the run in. Fox Bard showed early speed. The winner was run up $200 by F. D. Boaz and bought in.

Little Elkin, show, evens. El Caney, show, evens. Sarilla, show, 3 to 10. Valdez, show, 7 to 10.

Winner—B. f. by Emperor of Norfolk—Miss Baldwin.

Went to post at 3:05. At post 15 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Alzura closed up fast in the last eighth and was much the best at the end. St. Cuthbert, off none too well, got to the front just before turning for home, but tired in the last eighth. The race should do him good and about put him on edge. Small Jack finished strongly next to the inside rail. He is about due for a bracket and runs well in mud. Emma R. had no mishaps. She got off flying, but faded away fast in the last eighth. Georgie showed a little early speed. The others cut little figure in the dash.

Scratched—(28833) Miss Conrad, 110; 28804 Barney Saal, 100.

Overweights—Skip Me, 2 pounds.

Alzura, show, 8 to 5. St. Cuthbert, show, out. Small Jack, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—B. c. by Brutus—Ledaia.

Went to post at 3:50. Off at the first break to a good start. Won handily; second the same. Argregor was cleverly rated along, always within easy distance of the leaders until just after entering the stretch, where he was called upon and responded like a major. He finished with a great rush and was gradually going away at the end. Haviland ran an excellent race, hanging on much longer than usual. Kentucky Babe ran the best race of her career, but she was tiring at the end. Strangest was pocketed next to the inside rail in the last eighth, or he would have been closer up at the end. Rolling Boer had enough when a furlong out, as did also Searcher. Denman Thompson was always outrun and failed to show his usual rush in the stretch.

Scratched—28704 Federal, 108; 28807 Barrack, 106; 28861 St. Marcos, 107.

Argregor, show, 2 to 5. Haviland, show, 2 to 1. Kentucky Babe, show, 2 to 1. Rolling Boer, show, 7 to 5. Searcher, show, 4 to 5. The entry, place, evens.

Winner—Ch. g. by Iroquois—Great Annie.

Went to post at 4:20. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second the same. Tammany Chief under a weak ride finished strongly on his own courage and was going away at the end. Evelyn Byrd ran a fair race, but tired in the last eighth. Chorus Boy finished stoutly and is ready to win in the mud. John Grigsby tired badly in the last eighth. Eva Rice showed well for six furlongs. The winner, entered for $700, was run up to $900 and bought by F. D. Boaz.

Scratched—28863 Synia, 105; 28827 St. Wood, 103; 28572 Winter, 103.

Winner—B. f. by Conrad—Alvaretta.

Went to post at 4:45. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Mabel Winn finished with a rush through the last eighth and made her field look cheap. Queen W. was easily the best of the others. Santa Teresa came with a good burst of speed in the last fifty yards, nipping Jane Oaker on the post. The latter was tiring badly at the end. Zibia was speedy for a half mile and then faded away. Amirante could not extend herself well in the hard going. She runs best in the mud. Stella Perkins' race was not to the mark. She is an in and out and is hard to guess.

Scratched—28809 Lady Like, 90; (28605) Blue Ridge, 95.

Corrected weights—Zibia, 90.

Mabel Winn, show, 3 to 5. Queen W., show, 3 to 1. Santa Teresa, show, 3 to 2. Zibia, show, evens. Amirante, show, 7 to 10.

JOCKEYS HANDICAPPED.

DAILY RACING FORM will from now on publish each week a table of the rating of the jockeys riding at each track based on their performance in the saddle. The best riders at each track will be given the uniform rating of 100, and from that point the others will be graded down according to their estimated relative skill. For a difference of five points between the jockeys a corresponding five points change in the handicap figures assigned the horses in any race must be made. Only riders frequently in the saddle will be given a place in the tables. The following is the rating of the jockeys now riding over the various tracks:
